AMERICA IN WAR TO FULL EXTENT OF RESOURCES

As Many Men As Needed
Will Be Sent to the Battle Front

THE AGE LIMIT WILL BE CHANGED IF NECESSARY

Naval Secretary Tells of Workers' Share In Great Fight

(Associated Press Telegram)
Philadelphia, May 2.—As many millions as may be needed to win the war will be sent to the battle front, Secretary Daniels declared today in an address to the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce in behalf of the third Liberty loan.

"Let us not think in terms of fixed number," said the secretary, "congress has provided the selective draft and when there are enough ships all these men will be on the fields of France. If there is not enough men between 21 and 31 to win the war the age limit will be changed and men of forty and fifty, if need be, will respond to the colors."

He indicated that he considered it a great mistake to fix the number of the army at three million as had been suggested because the world would take that as the limit of what America could do. This he said, was far from the spirit of the government which was in the war to the full extent of the resources and man power of America.

Earlier in the day Secretary Daniels, speaking to employees of the League Island Navy Yard, asserted that the Kaiser's greatest disappointment was the failure of German spies and German propaganda to stir up labor troubles in the United States.

"Labor in the United States understands," continued the secretary, "and understands perhaps better than anybody else that it depends for its life and progress and future victories upon overcoming the German autocracy in this war."

"And labor is challenging German treachery and German money so successfully," he said, "that today in most industries labor is turning out more war munitions and supplies than ships can transport across the water."

He also emphasized to the men that a worker's share in the fight was equal to that of the men in the trenches or at sea and he praised the navy yard employees for their devotion to duty.

ONLY 7 COUNTIES HAVE NOT AS YET REACHED QUOTAS

Cleveland, May 2.—Of the eighty-eight counties in Ohio, only seven have not reached their Liberty loan quota; it was officially announced by the central liberty loan committee of the fourth federal reserve district. Of the seven, one is in the Cincinnati area, two in the Cleveland area and four in the Columbus area. All of the 20 counties in the Toledo area have oversubscribed.

The total subscriptions announced last night for the district amounted to $257,330,850.

Ohio's total has reached $161,142,250. Pennsylvania's $80,602,650. Kentucky's $10,333,250 and West Virginia's $5,252,700. By areas the standing is Cleveland $79,622,700; Pittsburgh $85,855,350; Cincinnati, $45,036,900; Columbus $11,586,050; Toledo $24,896,600 and Lexington, $10,333,250.

The honor flag total for the district is 1407.
The battle scarred British tank Britannia, which was in the battle of the Somme, was paraded through Cleveland streets today to help secure loan subscriptions. Banks will remain open evenings the rest of the week to sell bonds.

WOULD CORRECT THE PAST MISTAKES OF AIRCRAFT PROGRAM

New York, May 2.—Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, made public here today a letter he has written to President Wilson suggesting steps to be taken to "correct the past mistakes of the aircraft program and against a costly failure to supply the air forces needed by the allies to win the war."

Mr. Hawley recommends that an assistant secretary of war and an assistant secretary of the navy be appointed to the air staff board, to be followed by the creation of a department of aeronautics, based on the British plan. "A separate department of aeronautics is the only solution to all problems of building the air forces," he declared.

Mr. Hawley also called to the President's attention a report that the signal corps is refusing further enlistments for the air service, although only one-sixth of the necessary aviators are under training.

HEROISM OF SHIPS' CREWS IN COLLISION

French Sailors Picked Up
Number of Survivors
From Wreckage

66 LIVES LOST WHEN THE CITY OF ATHENS SINKS

Boat Was Bound For Savannah With a $2,000,000 Cargo Aboard

(Associated Press Telegram)
An Atlantic Port, May 2.—Survivors of the coastwise steamer City of Athens, which was sunk in a collision with a French cruiser in a fog off the Delaware coast yesterday morning with a loss of sixty-six persons, related here today many tales of heroism on the part of the crews of the two vessels. All praised the efforts of the French sailors, especially those who launched small boats within a few minutes after the accident and aided by the cruisers searchlights, picked up many of the survivors from pieces of wreckage.

The survivors agreed that the speedy sinking of the steamer—within five minutes after being rammed by the warship—was responsible for the heavy toll of life, although some claimed that the City of Athens' life saving apparatus failed to work properly. There were 135 persons, including 24 United States marines on board the steamer, which was bound from New York for Savannah with a $2,000,000 cargo of cement, rope, foodstuffs and general merchandise on board. GIVES MEMENTO OF LINCOLN FOR LIBERTY BONDS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 2.—A man too poor to buy a Liberty bond today offered the treasury his most prized possession, a gold dollar given him by Abraham Lincoln in 1860 at Mattoon, Ill., to be auctioned off, and the receipts turned into bonds. Writing to Secretary McAdoo, he said:

"Uncle Abe jokingly put his hand on my shoulder and said: 'George, you will vote for me, won't you?'"

"I said: 'I can't Uncle Abe—because you are a republican and I am a democrat.'"

"He bursted into a big laugh and said: 'George, I am going to give you a present for your honesty.'"

"He put his hand in his pocket and pulled out a gold dollar and gave it to me. I have been offered $2,500 for that dollar and I prize it very highly, but I will send it to you, and will let it go at any price to get a Liberty bond to help the boys in France."

The treasury now is trying to find a way of disposing of the Lincoln dollar.

INDIA LOYAL TO UTMOST CAPACITY IN GREAT CRISIS

London, Wednesday, May 1.—A message from the viceroy of India to the king-emperor is given out officially tonight. It says:

"A conference of the ruling princes and representative leaders of all classes of the people of India, assembled at Delhi, has authorized me in a resolution passed unanimously to convey to your majesty, the king-emperor, an expression of India's dutiful loyalty in response to your gracious message, and assurance of her determination to continue to do her duty to her utmost capacity in the great crisis through which the empire is passing."

"India is determined that your majesty's confidence that she will not fail the empire in its hour of crisis shall be fully justified and that the man-power and resources of the country shall be utilized to the greatest possible extent in the cause for which the empire is fighting."

THANKS, OLD TOP, THANKS!

Columbus, May 2.—That stiff collars soon may be a relic of bygone days, is a rumor heard at the Ohio State Laundry Men's convention in session here. Regulations of the food administration soon may deprive laundries of a cornstarch supply, it is said. Use of wheatstarch already has been stopped.

BIG CAR ORDER FOR

Washington, THE RALSTON CO. Ralston Steel Car Company, Columbus, is to receive a large order for freight cars, it is reported.

Its allotment, it is said, will be about 3000 street cars, to be constructed at an approximate cost of $3000 each, or about $9,000,000.

HUNS SEARCH EVEN POOR MARKET WOMEN IN BELGIUM

German soldiers searching Belgian market women.

In Belgium the Hun is present everywhere, meddling in everybody's business, telling everyone, from highest to lowest, just what he shall and shall not do, and making life unbearable in a general way for the inhabitants. Even the poor Belgian market women do not escape. In this picture German soldiers are seen examining the contents of their baskets. At the right a Hun has lifted a basket's covering and is peering intently inside. German officers at the left are closely questioning other women, whom they suspect have sinister designs against the German empire.

ASK CONGRESS FOR UNLIMITED POWER IN CREATING ARMY NECESSARY FOR VIGOROUS PROSECUTION OF THE WAR

Washington, May 2.—Secretary Baker, at a hearing today before the house military affairs committee, in confidential session, asked that congress grant unlimited power for the creation of an army of whatever size necessary for the prosecution of the war. He told the committee that it would be ill-advised to restrict the number of men to be utilized and that the size of the army should be increased in the discretion of the government, as transportation and equipment facilities warrant.

Secretary Baker indicated he would submit a proposed measure, probably as an amendment to the draft law, to grant the unlimited authority asked. Under the existing draft law, as construed by Chairman Dent of the military committee and others, there is authority for use of only 1,000,000 men under draft. Mr. Dent yesterday introduced a bill to authorize a draft to tal of 4,000,000 which, with volunteers already in the service would make an ultimate possible maximum strength of 5,000,000 men.

Secretary Baker was questioned by the committee regarding his views to increasing the draft age. He said he was studying the subject and had made no decision.

The house military committee will immediately resume consideration of the annual army appropriation bill and Secretary Baker's idea is that it shall provide only for the number immediately to be raised.

Indications are that it will carry provision for equipment, transportation, pay and other expenses of approximately 3,000,000 men as part not of a specific program but as a furtherance of a blanket authority plan involving use of all or part of the funds appropriated and supplemental appropriations later on as their need may become apparent.

GEN. HAIG REPLIES TO MESSAGE FROM WOMEN OF ENGLAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Wednesday, May 1, via Ottawa.—Queen Mary's recent letter to the troops has been published in a special order for the information of the troops in France, with the following telegram to the queen from General Haig:

"The message Your Majesty sent to the army and air forces in the name of the women of the British empire will inspire with new strength and fresh determination all those brave men from every part of the empire, who on the battlefields of France and Flanders are fighting so gallantly for all they hold most dear."

"They who with their own eyes daily see the women and children homeless, and once peaceful and prosperous villages and towns ruined and in flames, have resolved that their own loved ones and homes shall not share that suffering. No effort can be too great, no suffering too extreme to save their country from such a fate."

"Side by side with our gallant allies, whose wrong we feel as our own and are determined to set right, we will preserve in the fight against all odds until victory is at last achieved. In this great struggle we are heartened by the love and confidence of the women of the British empire, of which Your Majesty's most gracious message has given such moving expressions."

TAR AND FEATHERS GIVEN PRO-GERMAN OF SAN JOSE, CAL.

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Jose, Cal., May 2.—Tarred and feathered and chained to a brass cannon in a city park, George Koetzer, a brewery-worker, was found early today by the police who took him to the city prison.

Koetzer, who was accused of pro-German activities, told the police that "Knights of Liberty" wearing black coats over their heads, took him from his room, carried him in an automobile five miles into the country last night where they applied the coat of tar and feathers, and then brought him back to the park.

WILL PUBLISH ADDRESSES IN CASUALTY LIST

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 2.—The war department will resume almost immediately the practice of giving addresses of American soldiers named in the casualty lists sent from France.

Publication of addresses was discontinued March 8. Explaining at the time why the order was issued the war department said publication gave information to the enemy and also brought swarms of claim agents to harass relatives of men killed. The president took the subject up when the committee on public information refused to handle the list on the grounds that the names without addresses were valueless for publication purposes.

WOULD TO EXILE THESE SLACKERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, May 2.—Judicial recognition of the "slacker divorce" as a sequel to the "slacker marriage" was given by Justice Aspinwall in supreme court in Brooklyn yesterday. The evidence in a case before him indicated that a young man of draft age who sought to evade service paid a woman to marry him and then gave her an additional sum to give him a divorce. Justice Aspinwall said several similar cases had come to his attention.

"Such men are scoundrels," he declared, "and I have asked Charles E. Hughes, chairman of the district draft board, to investigate the cases which have come to my attention and to place these young men where they belong."

GREAT NEED FOR MEN IN SERVICE

Camp Dix, N. J., May 2.—So great is the need for men in the service now that soldiers who fail to qualify for trench duty will not be sent home, as has been done heretofore. Major General Scott and Major General McRae, it is announced, recently agreed to utilize these men in some of the non-fighting units or to send them to schools for vocational training.

BUY ANOTHER BOND.

"I'll buy another $50 Liberty bond with 1,000,000 other Americans," is the word received by the Central Liberty Loan committee, reports Chairman M. H. Laundon of Cleveland. This promise came from the president when he received word that more than 10,000,000 Americans had already purchased bonds.

President Wilson, like many others, has purchased as many bonds as he feels he can afford. But he is going in with 1,000,000 other true Americans who will buy another $50 bond on the installment plan of $5 down and $5 per month. So, even if you have bought your bonds be one of those who is going to match the president's offer. The president will sign an application for his additional $50 bond on Saturday night at a Washington theater if the million other additional $50 bond subscribers are secured. Be one of them.

POLICE KILL TWO GUNMEN IN BATTLE AT YOUNGSTOWN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Youngstown, May 2.—Patrolman James Cuccia of New Castle, Pa., and Captain A. L. Jenkins of the Youngstown police were wounded, the former probably fatally, while two of their assailants, members of a bandit gang, were killed during gun battles in both cities late last night. Two of the gunmen are still at large.

Cuccia was shot three times in the abdomen in the initial clash after he had detected the men in an attempt to rob a foreign boarding house in New Castle.

Before the gunmen escaped Cuccia wounded one of their number who died shortly afterward.

Following the encounter in New Castle the three survivors of the band caught a train for Youngstown and arriving here, hired a taxi cab hoping to avoid Youngstown police. The taxi driver becoming suspicious of the men's actions notified the police regarding his passengers and Captain Jenkins and Patrolman John Wilhelm set out in pursuit.

Cornered in an alley, the gunmen opened fire on the policemen and Captain Jenkins was shot through the chest. A battle lasting twenty minutes followed during which Wilhelm killed one of the gang with a shot through the heart. The remaining two then fled. Police claim to be on their trail.

AMERICANS WILL WEIGH IN BALANCE IN GREAT STRIFE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Wednesday, May 2.—"The end will show which weighed most in the balance—Austrian cannon as reinforcements to the enemy, or the battalions which crossed the Atlantic to support the defenders of right," says a special dispatch to the Temps, describing a visit to the American troops at the front.

"The Franco-British liaison has been rightly described as intimate; the Franco-American is, if possible, still closer. It is real fusion. Every document of the French divisions touching the Americans is immediately translated and communicated to the allies. There are two uniforms, two languages—but one army."

ONLY GERMAN ARTILLERY WAS BUSY NEAR MERRIS AND VILLERS-BRETONNEUX SECTOR

In An Effort to Find a Pregnable Place On Allied Battle Front Thrusts Are Made By the Enemy Against Positions Held By American and French Troops But Find An Unyielding Barrier and Retire With Loss

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, May 2.—The German artillery became active this morning in the Villers-Bretonneux sector on the Amiens front and in the neighborhood of Merris, on the Flanders front, it is announced officially. The statement reads:

"The enemy's artillery developed considerable activity early this morning in the Villers-Bretonneux sector, and in the neighborhood of Merris. Some activity was shown also during the night in the areas of Lens and St. Venant sectors. No infantry action is reported."

The Germans have established military rule in Kiev, the Ukrainian capital, and have arrested a number of the members of the government on the ground that "the government had proved too weak to maintain law and order," according to a Berlin official statement.

Now, the Germans, it is announced, have set up military rule in Kiev, the Ukrainian capital, and arrested several members of the cabinet. The government has proved "too weak to maintain law and order," it is claimed.

YOUNG GERMAN BOYS SENT TO THE FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
British Headquarters in France (via Ottawa), May 1.—The German field depots are being heavily drawn upon to replace recent casualties. The 13th German reserve division has just received a company of 250 boys of the 1919-20 class, who had only eight weeks' training, and were not to be put into the fighting unless absolutely necessary. But the fact that they are now in the division in the battle-line suggests the anticipation that they may have to be used.

GERMANS PREPARING FOR ANOTHER BIG OFFENSIVE

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
The Germans are displaying increased activity on the Somme battlefield and around the Montdidier salient to Noyon, probably in preparation for a renewal of their offensive in this area.

Checked last week by the stiff British and Franco-American resistance to their attempt to push further towards Amiens, the enemy forces are now engaged in trying out various portions of the southern front, in the apparent endeavor to find a weak spot.

One such effort, directed against positions held by American troops, has already been chronicled in the news dispatches. The enemy found an unyielding barrier here and retired with nothing but heavy losses to show for his attempt.

Last night there was a similar thrust at the French in the Thennes region, southwest of Hangard. The artillery promptly broke up this drive.

This morning the German guns opened up rather heavily in the Villers-Bretonneux area just north and directly east of Amiens, but no infantry attacks had developed up to the time the British official statement was issued at noon.

Meanwhile the lull that followed the severe defeat of the Germans on Monday has continued on the Flanders front. Only the artillery has been displaying activity there.

The German guns were reported opening up a somewhat spirited fire this morning in the region of Merris, indicating the possibility that the renewal of the German effort on the northern front, when it comes, may be developed along the Bailleur-Hazebrouck road, on which Merris marks the furthest westward advance of the enemy. The British have been holding this line strongly, as guarding the direct route to the vitally important Hazebrouck railway junction.

Today's news from Russia shows Germany adopting high-handed measures in the Ukraine, whence the much-vaunted food supplies have been coming slowly to the central powers, if at all, largely because of the general disorganization of the country.

THREATENED STRIKE OF CLEVELAND MEN MAY BE ADJUSTED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, May 2.—Al Faulkner, representative of the department of labor, has been instructed by Secretary Wilson to act as conciliator for differences between the Cleveland Railway company and its employees. Mr. Faulkner will confer with W. B. Fitzgerald, first vice president of the Car Men's International Union, who is expected to arrive here today to take charge of the union's cause, and John J. Stanley, president of the company.

The action by the government was accepted by the street car men and company officials as evidence that the full power of the government will be exercised to prevent an interruption of car service.

A final effort to adjust differences before government intervention becomes necessary will be made today by Mr. Fitzgerald.

MAIDEN VOYAGE OF VESSEL CELEBRATED BY SINKING A U-BOAT

(Associated Press Telegram)
An Atlantic Port, May 2. A—British freight steamer, fresh from the yards of her builders celebrated her maiden transatlantic voyage by running down and sinking a German U-boat off the Irish coast, her crew reported upon their arrival today. The freighter was equipped with the latest anti-submarine devices which proved very effective.

The sumberssible came to the surface suddenly a short distance off the ship's bow and was caught by the British helmsman's quick work almost before the U-boat commander could puzzle out through the steamer's remarkable camouflage whether she was going or coming. Members of the crew who were on deck described the ripping sound made as the submarine was torn apart and told of the quantities of oil which marked the spot where the U-boat went down.

A formal report of the incident was made to the British consul at the port of arrival.

Why Call Next Saturday Thrift Day?

Saturday, May 4th, day after tomorrow, will be Thrift Day in Licking county. Every one of the 756 agents handling Thrift and War Savings Stamps in this county is asked to make a special effort to sell War Stamps on Saturday and every merchant is asked to request the clerks to bring the War Savings Campaign to the attention of every customer and to sell one or more Stamps with every purchase, if possible.

The Newark merchants are planning for a big business on Saturday and many are arranging special Thrift sales. They will make special offerings of seasonable merchandise and will, through advertising, special window displays and through their sales forces, endeavor to dispose of many Thrift and War Savings Stamps.

A recent survey of Newark when every home was visited, disclosed the fact that more than 3,700 families were then buying War Savings Stamps. The number has since increased. There are 18 schools in this city where every pupil is a buyer of Stamps but the fact remains that not enough people are buying War Stamps and that many who are buying are not buying enough. If this community is to "go over the top" in the War Savings Stamp Campaign as it has in all three Liberty Loans and as it will in the coming War Chest drive, practically everybody must get the War Savings Stamp habit. Uncle Sam says to the people of Licking county "Your share of the Two Billion Dollar War Savings Stamp Issue is $1,236,180," so if we are to do our part Licking county must buy $4,000 worth of Stamps daily until January 1st, 1919. That means $20.00 worth Stamps for every man, every dollar you invest in Stamps will come back to you with interest. You are taking no chance on this investment. Its security is absolute, the interest rate is attractive and if you want your money back Uncle Sam will pay it anytime upon ten days' notice. The interest on War Savings Stamps grows from month to month. For instance a Stamp costs $4.16 this month and the government will buy it back from you in June at $4.17 if you really need the money. In July it is worth $4.18 and so on. The government of course discourages cashing the Stamps before maturity but plainly says that Stamps may be redeemed at any time up 10 days' notice. War Savings Stamps will not decrease in value. The owner may be sure of getting his money back with interest. Aside from the patriotic motives which should prompt one to buy War Savings Stamps this is a form of investment that should appeal to the most conservative investors. To date 170 Licking county people have become members of the $1,000 War Savings Society. Each will receive a certificate signed by Governor Cox. To become a member of this patriotic organization all that is necessary is to buy 200 W. S. S. (May price $832) and notify the Licking County War Savings Committee. The law doesn't permit one to own over 200 $5 Stamps.

War Savings Stamps are better than money itself because they are not taxable and grow in value every month. Registration which is security against loss, costs nothing. This country's entire resources are pledged to their payment, both principal and interest. The value of W. S. S. does not fluctuate. You are always sure of the full amount you pay, plus interest. The interest rate is 4% compounded every 90 days or 4.27% straight interest. And your money back anytime upon 10 days' notice. Search the world over and you can not find a safer, better investment than W. S. S. Then remember too that nearly 1,000 Licking county boys are in the United States army and navy today. The money you invest in W. S. S. goes to feed and clothe and equip and protect them.

Who under the conditions here recited can longer delay starting a War Savings Account? Begin today to save. Buy one Stamp every day, or every week, more if possible, but start buying now.

Merchants are urged to lay in a supply of Stamps. The postoffice and banks can supply them. Merchants who have not started to sell Stamps are invited to act as agents. Telephone headquarters, Auto 23124 for posters and For Sale cards.

Let's make Thrift Day, Saturday, May 4th, a big success. Let's put old Licking "over the top," thus showing our Licking county soldiers and sailors that the folks back home are solidly behind them.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, O., May 2.—The fourth successful season of the Women's Music Club, closed on the afternoon of May Day, when one hundred and ten members and guests assembled at Bryn Du, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, to listen to one of the choicest and most enjoyable programs yet presented.

The president, Mrs. W. P. Ullman, after welcoming the guests both ladies and gentlemen, read an interesting letter from David Biepham written to Mrs. C. B. White concerning the first presentation of Lill Lehman's "Persian Garden" in this country, but received by her too late to be read at the club's presentation of the two weeks ago. Mrs. Jones, the hostess, presented as leader of the program, gave briefly the salient features in the careers of the several composers, represented, with a few graphic phrases descriptive of the members on the program.

Against a charming background of palms and ferns and blossoms, and facing a representative audience of music lovers, was presented a program of real distinction, as well as of unusual charm. In the opening two piano numbers from Arensky, the Russian composer, Misses Rockwood and Hulshizer gave a thoroughly musically interpretation of five "Silhouettes," op. 23, in which the delightful Russian flavor was suggested in the light, graceful, singing rhythm, without the sombreness.

Mrs. J. W. Rohrer, soprano, gave a group of Franz songs, with more than the customary charm both of voice and presence, "Dedication," "I Have in Thy Eyes," "For Music," "Now Welcome, My Lord," she was faultlessly accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Ashton.

Miss Lora Wright at the piano, gave a brilliant rendering of Schumann's "Nocturne, Op. 23, No. 4," and the Liszt "Aubade d'une Source."

The group of Mendelssohn duets sung by Mrs. Roe Morrison and Mrs. John Ogilvie gave fresh evidence of the perennial charm of these old-time favorites when interpreted by such artists. "I Would That My Love," "O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast," and "Maybells and Flowers."

Mrs. Theodore Johnson presented a double number, "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal," by Razer Quilter, and "The Star," a fragment from Pato, by James K. Rogers. Mrs. Johnson's voice has greatly broadened and deepened, and with almost a year's rest, it has added sweetness and purity of tone to its splendid range and volume. The two selections were exquisitely suited to her.

Miss Bessie Larkin of Newark was treated with an ovation. Her contributions to the programs are a source of enjoyment to her many admirers, and her understanding of Chopin was never given more exquisite expression than in his "Nocturne, Opus 27, No. 2," and two Mazurkas, "Op. 58 No. 1, and Op. 6, No. 1," tone poems, "a murmur of moods full of human emotion." The closing number was a three-part chorus by Bruch, entitled "The Dawn," a tone picture of earliest morning, sung by Mrs. Everett P. Johnson, in the obligato, Misses Hamblen and Spencer, Burton Case, Mrs. C. J. Lovels, Mrs. Ullman, Mrs. Eschman, Mrs. Elsie Carter, Mrs. E. C. Roberts, Mrs. J. D.

Thompson. Preceding this, Mrs. Jones called upon Mrs. C. B. White for an appreciation of the work of the retiring president, Mrs. Ullman, and that versatile musician responded in the following brief glowing tribute:

"The program of today is the closing cadence of our club year. I feel that the harmony of the final chord lacks one note. This note is an expression of our appreciation of the work of our president. During her three years as our president, Mrs. Ullman has enjoyed the rare distinction of always bringing sunshine to our seasons. She has kept her own courage and effort and our courage and effort tuned up to standard pitch, and she has resolved dissonances those dissonances without which no musical composition and no music club is quite interesting; I feel confident that I voice the thought of each member of the Granville Women's Music Club when I say of Mrs. Ullman that we appreciate her, we thank her, we love her."

To which the president, being taken entirely off her feet by surprise returned a brief but graceful word of thanks.

Mrs. L. H. Cammack of Huntington, W. Va., visiting her father, Mr. Hiram La Ferre, for a few days, Mrs. William Perfect of Marysville has been visiting at the home of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

Newark People Should Act in Time. If you suffer from backache;

If you have aching, dizzy spells;

If the kidney secretions are irregular.

Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Newark people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's a Newark man's experience:

Ralph E. Lipscomb, machinist, 142 E. Main St., says: "I have a lot of heavy lifting and while at work placing a heavy casting in the machine I was suddenly seized with sharp, shooting pains across my back. For a time I was just about all in. My kidneys acted too freely at times, then again scanty and the secretions were painful and contained a sort of brickdust sediment. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used by others of my family I tried them. They helped me from the first and soon cured me. Since then I have been free from kidney trouble."

OLD-FASHIONED REMEDIES

Grandmother's remedies compounded from the medicinal roots and herbs of the fields, are now found upon the shelves of the modern drug stores in attractive packages and are among the best sellers in prepared medicines. Prominent among them is that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for three generations has been relieving the women of America from the worst forms of feminine ills and is now considered the standard remedy in its line.—Advertisement.

COMMUNITY KITCHENS CANNED.

Community kitchens, where surplus vegetables and fruits are canned under co-operative arrangements were operated last year in Ohio, Pleasant, Kanawha, Jefferson, and to some extent, in other counties of West Virginia. The kitchens were supervised by the home demonstration agents of the extension division of the state University.

In the city of Charleston, where a kitchen was opened in July, the number who brought products to be canned increased from 56 women during the second week to several times that number in a short time.

Supplementing the work of the Charleston kitchen are about 15 volunteer women who, under the supervision of the home demonstration agent of Kanawha County, established temporary field kitchens in the rural communities, to which the women bring their surplus vegetables and fruits. The county agricultural agent and his assistants give active aid in connection with this work.

As a result of this effort, large quantities of food were conserved, much of which would otherwise have been wasted.

HERE ARE TEN WAYS

TO PREVENT EGG LOSSES.

1. Selecting breeds that lay more and larger eggs, such as the White Leghorns, Wyandottes, Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, Orpingtons, etc.

2. Giving better care, food and shelter, with dry, clean, vermin-proof nests.

3. Confining males except in breeding season.

4. Collecting eggs frequently, especially in hot or muggy weather.

5. Storing eggs in a dry, clean, cool place.

6. Using small and dirty eggs at home.

7. Marketing frequently, with protection at all times from heat.

8. Selling for cash on a basis of size and quality, "loss off" instead of "case count."

9. Using an attractive package.

10. Combining shipments as a matter of economy.

EXERCISE PREVENTS PIG THUMPS.

When the pigs are from four or five to ten days old, be on the look-out for thumps. The best-looking fat little pig is the one to go first every time. An almost certain indication is a little roll of fat around the neck. While there is no known cure for thumps, the trouble is quite easily prevented. Plenty of exercise for the pigs is the answer. In cold, stormy weather out-of-door exercise is impossible, but if a central farrowing house with an alleyway is used, get the little fat fellows into the alley and put, in about ten or fifteen minutes three or four times a day chasing them with a huggy whip until they are pretty well tired out. If this is impossible, try putting one or two of the little pigs at a time in a large barrel or hoghead, placed by the farrowing pen. The pigs will hear the old sow making a fuss and in running around the barrel hunting for a corner to climb out, generally will take the exercise necessary to ward off thumps. A considerable part of the battle is won if the litter gets past the first ten days or so with a good start.

BEFORE THE DELUGE.

"When Noah went to work on the blueprints for the ark," writes a contributor to The Advocate, "he was handicapped in whatever effort he made to arouse popular interest in his enterprise, inasmuch as the sky had not yet begun to cloud up. It is the storm that was to come had threatened, or even been predicted by competent weather experts, a few weeks in advance, Noah would not only have been a hero for his far-sightedness, but he could have floated stock for a whole squadron of arks. I venture to say that once the Big Rain got well started, and people saw that it was really going to be not a mere shower but a humdinger, breaking all spring records, they would gladly have bought Ark bonds, redeemable at maturity, to the full limit of their resources and no questions asked—if only they could be carried along to safety."

The man who would have quibbled about the expense, if offered a chance to buy first-class passage on the ark before it sailed, would have been unceremoniously kicked to one side for blocking the aisle. Continuing, the contributor writes:

"The only thing that prevented people from clamoring for reservation on the ark, weeks in advance, was the fact that they didn't believe any flood was coming. Today we have no such excuse for not buying Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps. We know the war is here. We know, too, what kind of people we are fighting—what kind of treacherous, merciless, double-crossing bullies we would be obliged to deal with if the enemy should be victorious. Victory is a bargain no matter how much it costs. Mere money would hold small charm if Teutonic autocracy should prevail in the world. For the world would not be fit for a self-respecting human to live in. Compared with having a Prussian officer with an arrogant strut and a peak-shaped head standing on my street telling me where I may go, and what I may think—and what my boy may be permitted to believe when he grows up—compared with that sort of thing, I started to say, being drowned in a historic flood is a trifling hardship. The man who refuses to buy Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps is still more stupid than the fellow who refused to pay his last penny, if need be, to get aboard the ark. It is too bad these two couldn't have been personally acquainted. They doubtless would have enjoyed each others company."

Mr. Ireland, the inimitable cartoonist of The Columbus Dispatch, famous the country over as "janitor" of the "Passing Show" in the Sunday edition, is putting over some very clever work these days. Yesterday's Dispatch carried an Ireland picture that has a real punch. England is at bat. Hindenburg in the pitchers' box is holding a conference with Catcher Crown Prince, and Uncle Sam wearing a uniform labeled "Allies," calls to the batter: "Just get on, pal! That's all I ask of you—I'll bring you home." And Uncle Sam with his big stick will do it, too.

HOW IT COMES BACK.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

All of this money with which we buy Liberty bonds, the hundreds of millions which we are spending for Thrift Stamps, every penny which we are lending to the allies, all comes directly back to us. It isn't destroyed or sent out of the country, or locked up in vaults.

We do not really lend any money to our allies. It is this way: Great Britain wants to buy ten million dollars worth of something in this country. The government of the United States lends her ten million dollars with which to pay for it, and takes her collateral for the repayment of the money. Great Britain then pays the money to the concerns making the goods she wanted—and the goods are sent across.

But the money remains right here. The United States government, in order to get the 10 million dollars to lend to Great Britain has to sell bonds or stamps. So you buy the bonds or stamps, and will some day receive your money back with interest. The government turns the money over to Great Britain, and Great Britain turns it over to the manufacturers, and the manufacturers pay it out for labor and material—and it eventually gets right back to the people who bought bonds or stamps.

But, you say, the manufacturer makes a profit—that he has something left after paying for labor and material. Sure. But he must pay taxes out of that profit, and spend much of it for his own living, and invest some of it in bonds and stamps like the rest of us. The manufacturer isn't destroying the money, or sending it out of the country, or locking it up.

We have loaned several billion dollars to our allies—but it has all remained in this country. The government has sold billions of dollars worth of bonds and stamps, but every dollar of it is doing business right here in the United States. Some men have made profit in making war goods—but they have not sent those profits to the Man in the Moon. The manufacturers are entitled to a reasonable profit; otherwise we wouldn't have manufacturers. But we quite agree with you or anybody else who says that a manufacturer who makes more than a reasonable profit off a war contract ought to be stood against a wall and shot. The profiteers—and there are some of them—are traitors to their country and ought not to be allowed to live in it. But all manufacturers are not profiteers; not by a great deal.

THE SITUATION.

(Ohio State Journal.)

The situation on the western front is one that gives much anxiety. We have won as much, if not more than the Hun have, but their drive is not ended and until it is the anxiety will continue. The signs still point to a long, long war, and man duty is to put every available man on the fighting line. It is useless to speculate as to the length of the war, for there is nothing to indicate a short war while there are some indications that it will not last longer than next year. These indications relate to the man power on the two sides, and upon this basis the allies are, or will be soon, much ahead of the foe. Germany has about spent its force and it has too many irons in the fire to concentrate what it has against the armies of the allies. The Hun purpose seems to be to defeat the allies before the Americans can get in force, but the latter are now getting in force and they will have a million men on the battle line by the middle of summer. We are in this war to win and the hope that we will succeed has not weakened a particle.

THE LATEST HUN LIE.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.)

"Incredible falsehoods" is what Gen. March calls German reports that American aviators have been taken to France in hospital ships, but it is not so incredible that the enemy would spread that false information preparatory to an attack on a vessel carrying wounded. They resorted to the same tactics in the case of British hospital ships, saying transports were wearing the Red Cross markings and that therefore their submarine commanders could not be held to blame for "mistakes." So we know what to expect from their attempt to place hospital ships in the transport class by announcing their discovery of armaments as passengers. But we are not unprepared. To be deceived into thinking the Germans will respect the rules of civilized war fare in our case would be folly. They recognize no rule or humane custom, but choose to outlaw themselves rather than miss an opportunity to wound an adversary. Let us put all thought of their adherence to good sportsmanship aside and trust to our superior might in all cases.

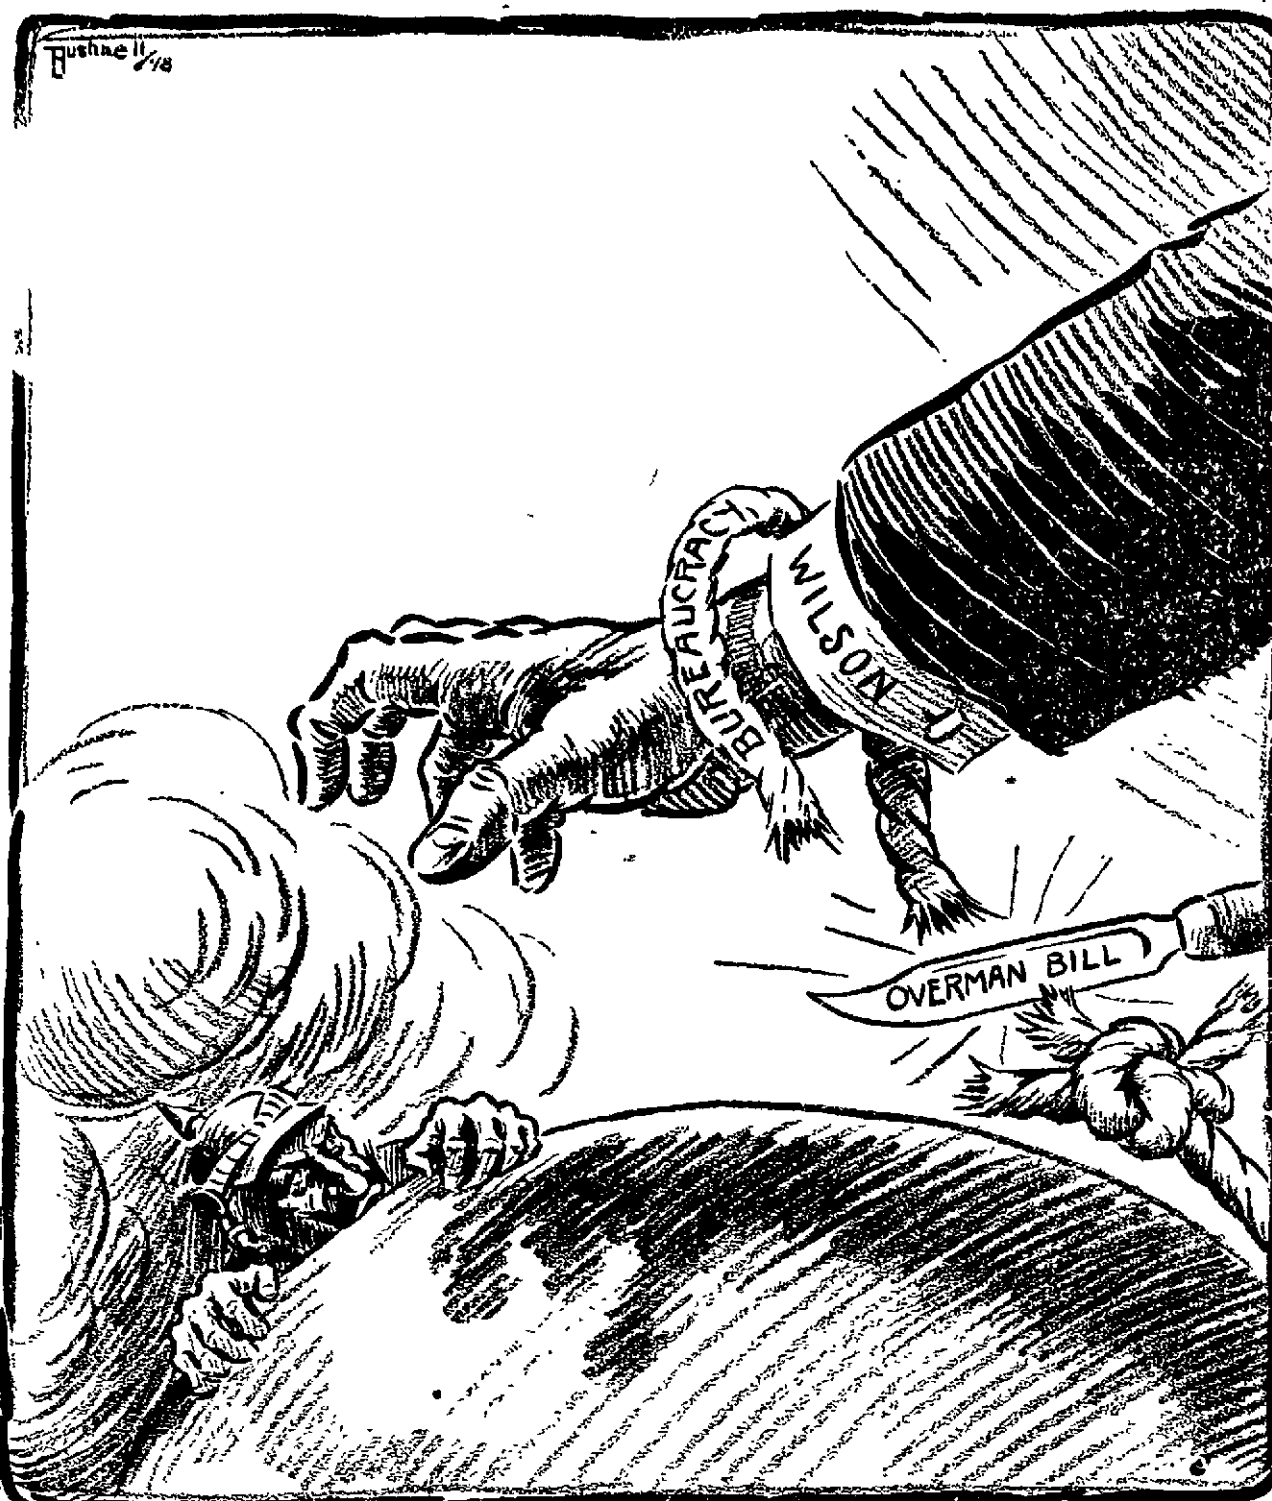

WHEN WORDS ARE TREASON

(Meadville Tribune Republican.)

The decision of a Philadelphia court that "mere words" may constitute treason, that "words may be acts and acts may be words," was based on common sense. It is remarkable that any lawyer should have expected a contrary plea to prevail. Treason is constitutionally defined as levying war against the United States, "or adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort." Surely the use of words can give comfort to an enemy; there is nothing more undoubted in all history.

In another court several persons were convicted on a charge of trying to prevent young men from registering for the draft. Nothing could be more treasonable. It is a curious notion held by some persons that the right of free speech in this country is absolute and may not be contravened in any way. The "freedom of speech" guaranteed by the constitution does not extend to license. Courts have decided over and over again that with freedom of speech, as with any other sort of freedom, there is personal responsibility. It is most unfortunate that those who prate most loudly about their constitutional rights are not Americans of long standing. They in some way acquired the idea that in this country they could do precisely as they pleased and that they have no responsibility. The supreme court of the United States settled that issue for all time in the Emma Goldman and Berkman case. Treason is treason, no matter in what form it is committed.

It is painful that a land which has done so much for human liberty, which for centuries has been the asylum of the oppressed, should be taken by some as a land of anarchy. It is argument on the subject. There is no stance, there should have to be any painful that, under existing circumstances for technicalities. Those who are not for us are against us.

Spirit of the Press

Tremendous Drama in France.
We must not play Germany's game by overindulgence in pessimism concerning the situation on the western front. The English army is a magnificent fighting organization. And it is particularly important in the present situation to remember that the Britisher's particular genius in war lies in his capacity for stubborn defense. No thinking American can look unmoved upon the tremendous drama that is being unfolded in France. The British and French armies, and our own brave boys at the front, will not be carried off their feet by German warfare and German bluster. If they are not able to play their part on the field of battle, surely we should not become panic-stricken, four thousand miles behind the line.—Cincinnati Times Star.

A Stupid Practice.
The practice of compelling persons charged with disloyalty to kiss the stars and stripes is a silly display of patriotism insulting to the flag. The kiss is the salute of affection. It is a travesty to enforce it from those who have no real love for Old Glory in their hearts and whose lips have spoken words that awakened the anger of loyal men. If the kiss is required as a penalty, then the use to which the flag is put is wholly wrong. You would not punish a man who had insulted your wife by compelling him to kiss her. Let the offender be made to apologize publicly and humbly in the presence of the flag, but reserve the salute of affection for those who really love it and whose love has been proven by service.—Chicago Evening Post.

Utah Wants a Gun Factory.
Although Utah boasts the greatest inventor of firearms in the world, we have no firearms factory in the state. Why is it that, with the mightiest of wars in progress, a government factory has not been established here? The light and heavy Browning machine guns have been pronounced by experts far and away ahead of any similar weapon in existence. And not only the Browning machine guns, but other Browning weapons could be made in the Utah factory. It is, perhaps, not out of place to suggest that the commercial clubs of Salt Lake and Ogden, which is Mr. Browning's home town, should investigate the feasibility of such a factory. Few of the machine guns have yet been made. Let the commercial clubs begin an active inquiry, for there is no time to spare if we are to obtain a factory.—Salt Lake Tribune.

HALF SICK, HALF WELL

A Condition That Will Not Improve Upon Itself.

In the Spring the depressing condition that many call Spring fever often runs through families and neighborhoods.

This indefinite, hard-to-describe state of poor health probably means that you are thin-blooded and anemic. Exhausted thin blood gets thinner, low vitality falls lower, poor appetite becomes poorer. Then the thoroughly exhausted system can no longer resist, and on comes the prostrating illness or serious disease.

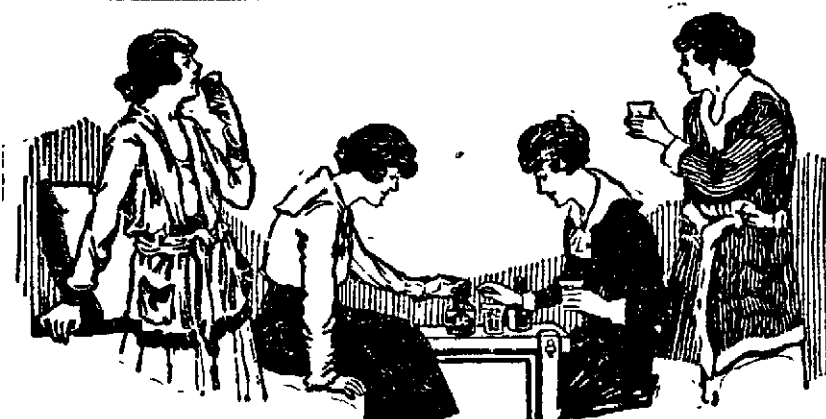

Treat the half-sick, Spring-tired condition with that splendid course of medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla, to fortify the whole body; Peptonin, to bronze and make rich red blood; Hood's Pills to rouse the liver to its regular daily duties, and the half-well revives to perfect health. Each medicine is valuable in itself but is trebly so when used in this combination.—Advertisement.

Girls—Do You Know Why Your Hair is Ugly?

When your hair becomes faded, dry, streaked and scraggly, when it falls out badly and new hair cannot grow, the roots must be vitalized and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage (liquid form) which you can get at W. A. Erman's and all good drug counters.

It's guaranteed to abolish dandruff—stop scalp itch and falling hair, and promote a new growth or money refunded. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively and appear heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky or greasy, and delicately perfumed—antiseptic liquid free from dangerous ingredients, and guaranteed not to color the hair or scalp. If you want good looking hair and plenty of it use Parisian sage. Don't delay—begin tonight—a little attention now insures beautiful hair for years to come.

ALTOONA YOUNGSTERS HAD ARMY FEVER AND RAN AWAY FROM HOME

Although only 15 years old, the thrill of the war so enthused Sheldon Russell and his pal, Gerald Call, of Altoona, Pa., that they ran away from their homes in that city to enlist. They failed in this but managed to come to grief in Newark and William C. Russell of 1501 Thir davenue, Altoona, father of the Russell boy came to Newark today to take them home.

The boys who are a little over five feet in height and both wearing knickerbockers ran away from their homes and endeavored to enlist in the navy or army at South Fork, Pa. Failing in this they arrived in Newark Saturday, and mailed a card to their parents, but gave no address.

The father of the Russell boy immediately notified Chief Sheridan, that the boys were in the city and asked that they be arrested on a serious charge, and locked up. He wanted to "swat" them a bit in order to cure them of the enlistment fever.

This was not necessary, however, for the two of them stole two bicycles from Newark, one belonging to Rex Clark, and going to Columbus, tried to sell the wheels. They were picked up while endeavoring to dispose of the bicycles and turned over to the juvenile court. The Newark police were notified, yesterday, shortly after they had received the letter from Altoona. The boys were brought back to Newark and the father notified. He arrived in Newark early this morning, and the boys were turned over to him by the juvenile court. He left during the morning with them for their homes.

The plaintiffs allege the paper writing is not the last will and testament of the said Nellie Francis.

The plaintiffs pray that an issue be made up as to whether the said paper is the one claimed to be and that the same may be set aside.

Milady's Boudoir

The Hair and Freckles.

A certain amount of oil is necessary to the growth of the hair. Crude oil or olive oil are the best tonics. Here is a good lotion for oily hair and it has tonic properties: Three ounces white vaseline, one ounce distilled water, 40 grains of resorcin. Mix well and apply every night.

And here is another good tonic which contains some oil, but is not excessively oily: One half pint alcohol, two drachms castor oil, the same of tincture of cartharides. Apply nightly after brushing and massage well in. The value of any tonic depends very largely upon the massage which accompanies it.

Summer vacation freckles are hard to banish and the most efficient bleaches, with their deadly poisons, are too unsafe to put in a girl's hands or even in the hands of the average mother. However, here is a freckle lotion recommended by a careful physician: Acetic acid, four ounces; glycerine, (a) ounces; rose water, one ounce.

Apply it several times daily with a soft cloth, pouring the lotion as needed, into a saucer. This is a clearly precaution to observe with all skin lotions. If after several applications the skin is much irritated, go a night or two without the lotion, using a soothing cream instead.

Oldsmobile

SETS THE PACE 20th Year

COMPLETE satisfaction in the purchase of an automobile is the earnest desire of everyone. Oldsmobile owners have found their experience to be of utmost interest to prospective buyers.

The eight-cylinder motor is remarkably flexible, and there is a fascinating smoothness of overlapping power impulses. Confidence and pleasure are thus afforded in driving, without gear shifting, in the dense traffic of the metropolis or on the long, steep pulls of the country roads.

An abundance of reserve power masters all difficult situations and enables quick acceleration from snail's pace to limited's speed. Fuel consumption is light and there is a minimum of tire expense.

The comfort of the car is a revelation; the resiliency of the double-tiered cushion springs and superior upholstery contribute riding qualities unknown in cars of the same price class.

Oldsmobile reputation is a veritable bond to you; it inspires the same confidence you have in the oldest bank in town. A twelve months' guarantee is back of each Oldsmobile. Service stations are to be found everywhere.

The Oldsmobile six-cylinder car is equally representative among cars of its type and embodies all the high Oldsmobile standards.

Built with five different styles of bodies—touring cars, roadsters and club roadsters. Prices are $1195.00 and $1550.00, f. o. b. Lansing.

is made as follows: Add 10 drops of chloroform to the yolk of an egg and beat with an egg-beater to stiff consistency. Rub the size of an English walnut of this mixture into the scalp with the tips of the fingers, taking care to rub it thoroughly into the roots of the hair. Afterward wash the scalp with lenolin or castile soap and dry thoroughly with a soft towel. Some physicians claim that this is the only remedy for dandruff that is at once harmless and efficacious.

DEFINITION OF SANDWICH

New York, May 2.—Necessity for a revision of the popular definition of a sandwich was pointed out to the federal food board in a message from the food administration made public today.

"A sandwich," said the message, "instead of consisting of meat or cheese between two slices of bread, may quite as appropriately be two muffins with meat or cheese on a plate beside them."

Save Food

To Help Your Fighters Fight

—Waste of food is a crime which may lose the fight for us and the penalty will be worse than any punishment meted out by law for the ordinary crimes against society. The trail of the Prussian army in Belgium and France shows the nature of the punishment we may expect if we fail, through carelessness and waste of food, to support our fighting men.

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets.
They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure, and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

GREAT AUDIENCE SEES PICTURE AT
THE AUDITORIUM

The Auditorium was packed last night to witness the sensational picture of the age, "The Kaiser, The Beast of Berlin." This wonderfully thrilling photodrama kept the large crowds on the qui vive until the end.
Many women in the audience sobbed loud and handkerchiefs were freely used by all as the heartrending and horrible cruelty practiced by the Kaiser's minions was depicted on the screen.

The final ending of the picture with the American army marching proudly into Berlin brought the great crowd to its feet and the applause was deafening, as it also was when the picture of the chief executive of the nation, President Woodrow Wilson, was thrown upon the screen.

Manager Geo. M. Fenberg is more than pleased with the initial showing of the picture yesterday and it will continue until Saturday night.
Country people from a distance are especially invited to attend the Saturday matinee. Mgr. Fenberg last night handed out printed cards in colors, reading:

Here Lies the Kaiser
The Beast of Berlin,
His Soul is in Hell
Filthy in Sin,
For the Women and Children
He Ruthlessly Slew
So cover him with Pitch
And a coating of Glue
And Stick His Blank head
In a Fire that's so Hot
That never Again
Will He say
"Ich Und Gott."

THE MILK'S JOURNEY

FROM COW TO KITCHEN.
In the handling of foodstuffs the American people constantly demand increased service. Package goods, deliveries and special deliveries, buying in small quantities and so on, all require additional labor by some one.
The milk consumer now is accustomed to find a bottle of clean, cold milk on the doorstep in the morning. If the milkman is late or does not come at all, vigorous complaint is voiced.
Such a complaint is likely to be based on a lack of understanding of the many difficult steps involved in the modern system of distributing milk.

Way off in the country somewhere, perhaps as far as 200 miles, some farmer must rise before daybreak to feed and milk his cows. The milk must be carefully cooled to keep it sweet, and must then be hauled for several miles over sometimes almost impassable roads to the railroad.

Then begins the long haul to the city where the milk is carried on big trucks to the dealer's plant. There it is carefully pasteurized, bottled and placed in the refrigerator. The next morning about 1 or 2 o'clock the bottled milk is loaded on the delivery wagon and the driver starts on his way, carrying from 300 to 400 quarts, all of which must be delivered before breakfast time. Of course in small towns this system is simpler, as the farmer often delivers the milk directly to the consumer, but even then there are so many difficulties that the milkman may be excused if he is a little late now and then.

APPRECIATION OF SUPPLIES SENT TO A BASE HOSPITAL

Mrs. Ella McDermott, 21 South
Fifth street, has received the following letter from the base hospital at Camp Sherman, as an acknowledgment of hospital supplies sent to the camp by the Women's Relief Corps of Newark:

"My Dear Mrs. McDermott—The
box of hospital garments has arrived and on behalf of our patients I desire to express our sincere appreciation of the efforts of the Women's Relief Corps of Newark, O. Note from your card that several of your members have boys here; in fact, most of the troops in this camp, including the writer, are from the Buckeye state.

"These articles were distributed among the boys, and they were all more than glad to receive such a substantial remembrance from the folks back home. Again thanking you, I am,

"Yours sincerely,
"Carl Graner.

CAPITAL IN DAIRY FARMING.

Very few people realize the amount of money invested in the dairy farms of the country. The Department of Agriculture reports that on January 1, 1918, there were 23,284,000 milch cows on farms in the United States, and these cows were valued at $1-643,639,000. Add to this figure the value of lands, buildings, and machinery used in dairy farming, and the aggregate is stupendous.

The investment in individual dairy farms varies considerably, being influenced by land values, the number and kind of buildings, and the quality of the cattle kept. A modern dairy of fifty cows, capable of producing a daily average of 500 quarts of milk, would require an investment in equipment of approximately $13,300. This would be divided as follows:

50 cows at $100 $ 5,000

2 pure-bred bulls 1,000

Barn for cattle and milking 5,000

2 concrete silos, capacity 125

tons each 550

Dairy house and equipment 800

Ice house, capacity 150 tons 500

Barn equipment 450

Total $13,300

Added to this would be the value of horses and horse barn, dwelling house, harnesses, farm machinery, etc.

The value of the land itself is the biggest single item. It has not been included in this estimate because of its variability. If land worth $50 an acre is used, the land investment would be close to $15,000. If $200-land is bought, its cost would approximate $30,000.

GEM.

Helen of Troy is reputed to have been the most beautiful woman of history, but she had nothing on the Helen who is the heroine of "The Rough Lover," which comes to the Gem Theatre on Friday either in the matter of beauty or perversity. She could not tell the difference between her rough lover, who was a pugilist, and her timid lover, who was a book worm, until the book worm beat up the pugilist and made him jump off a cliff. But this provided excitement enough for Helen for one morning, so she surrendered and became merely Mrs. Bolton. The role of the beautiful Helen is effectively enacted by Juanita Hansen, Franklyn Farnum's acquired leading lady.

GRAND.

"The Firefly of Tough Luck." They called her "The Firefly" on Broadway, where she made life merry for many revellers. She was a cabaret entertainer at one of the big restaurants, and until the great war closed the cafes early and made all-night life a thing of the past, the Firefly knew no other world than "her Broadway." And then she found herself out of work, the town flooded with idle cabaret performers, and her daily life of discouragement. This was not the Firefly's greatest sorrow. Her worth-to merry making, for it is the surprise in store for her which makes "The Firefly of Tough Luck" a great drama of desert life, and one which promises to draw new laurels for Triangle "Vest-erns." Alma Ruebens is at her best in the title role of the Firefly, and scores a tremendous hit in this drama of real men and real women.

It is historically and architecturally correct in every detail. Even the fifty costumes which Miss Bara wears, although noticeably scant, are in accordance with the early days when woman dressed for comfort. Miss Bara wears jewels and ornaments valued at more than $150,000.

The picture is a spectacular drama but always there is the central figure of Egypt's queen, artistically and vividly introduced. The Egypt of Cleopatra's time, orientally luxurious and riotously extravagant with its costumes, its decorations and its manner of doing things is pictured with remarkable fidelity.

NOTED PRELATE TO SPEAK AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH

For the third time the First Methodist church has secured the services of Bishop William A. Quayle for the anniversary of the dedication of that splendid house of worship. Bishop Quayle will be present throughout the day on Sunday, May 12th. He will speak to the men of the church at 9:30 a. m. and is expected to deliver the Brevin Bible class and will also address the entire Sunday school at the close of the period. He will preach at 10:30 and 7:30 p. m. on Friday, May 10, he BISHOP W. A. QUAYLE, will deliver his far-famed lecture, on "America, Land of Dreams." This address is especially opportune at this time and is perhaps the most noted of all his great lectures. Bishop Quayle stands pre-eminent among the great preachers of his church and has no superior on the American platform today. In discussing the war now raging he is reminding those who hear him of the great war speeches of the late Henry Ward Beecher. His lecture on "America" will not only be of interest to Methodists of this city and county, but also to citizens in general. When he is announced to speak his audience is limited only by the capacity of the great edifice. The officials of the First church will make every effort to accommodate all who may desire to hear him. Remember the dates, May 10th, 8:15 p. m. and all day Sunday, May 12th.

THRILLING BATTLE IN AIR AGAINST 8 GERMAN PLANES

London, Wednesday, May 1.—The Victoria cross has been awarded to Lieutenant Allan Gerard and Alan Arnett McLeod of the royal air force for deeds which stand out, even among the exploits in this branch of the service.

Gerard, when on an offensive patrol with two other officers, attacked five enemy airplanes, shooting one down in flames. He then attacked an enemy airplane, engaging, single-handed, some 19 machines, which either were landing or starting off, and crashed one of them against the ground. A large number of machines then attacked Gerard but, seeing one of his companions in difficulty, he went to his assistance and destroyed a third enemy machine.

Fresh enemy machines were raising from the air and he attacked them, one after another, and only retreated when ordered to do so. Five machines pursued him, but he turned, although apparently wounded, and repeatedly attacked them until, overwhelmed by numbers, he was driven down.

McLeod, while flying at an altitude of 5000 feet, was attacked by eight enemy machines, which dived at him from all directions, firing from their front guns. By skillful maneuvers he enabled his observer to first burst at each machine in turn shooting three down.

By this time both McLeod and his observer were wounded and their machine was in flames. McLeod climbed out onto the plane, controlling the machine from the side, and by side-slipping steeply he kept the flames confined to one side, thus enabling the observer to keep on firing until the ground was reached.

McLeod dragged the observer from the flaming machine, and, although again wounded by a bomb, preserved until he had placed his companion in safety when he fell from exhaustion, due to loss of blood.

The Flanders battle until still more troops and greater concentrations of cannon are massed along the few important miles of the front south-west of Ypres. Signs are being brought up reinforcements and supplies but the Anglo-French troops stirred by the brilliant repulse of the enemy which caused him to cease his attacks for the second time, wait confidently.

As the first break in the hard fighting was followed by stronger attacks, it is probable that only the difficulties of transport and supply compel the enemy to withhold further assaults against the allied positions from the Mount Kemmel region westward. Except for Mount Kemmel and a small strip to the east including the Messines ridge, the Germans are on much lower ground than the French and British and must either fight on or be compelled eventually to withdraw before the smothering fire of the allied artillery.

Heavy artillery firing and the use ual outpost actions continue along the front. Around the important sector of Loree the French have been shelled very heavily by the enemy. On the southern leg of the salient the German guns have been active in the region of Bethune. Southward in Picardy only the artillery has been active.

American troops in Picardy east of Amiens have engaged the German infantry for the first time on the great battle field and have emerged victorious. After shelling heavily the American position near Villers-Bretonneux, south of the Somme and on the direct route to Amiens, three enemy battalions attacked Tuesday night. Sharp fighting took place all along the line and the Germans were repulsed, having sustained severe losses and leaving dead and wounded on the field. The American losses are reported as "rather severe."

Fighting for democracy and for freedom of their home land, Bohemian and Slav detachments are now facing Austro-Hungarian troops along the sectors in northern Italy. Apparently these units have been recruited from former residents of the dual monarchy from deserters from the enemy ranks. Austro-Hungarian commanders who have many thousands of Czechs and Slavs in their units are said to be fearful of the effect this move may have on their own troops. This and the fact that the Czechs at Prague and elsewhere and the Slavs in Carniola and southward have become openly hostile to the Austrian government may explain why the enemy offensive against Italy has been delayed. Berlin has heralded and urged an offensive but Austro-Hungarian attacks have not yet developed.

Although Constantinople and Berlin recently announced the repulse of the British westward across the Jordan, General Allenby's men east of the river have captured nearly 300 prisoners in a successful attack against the Turks south of Es-Salt, toward which the British are advancing. Mezrah, west of the Jordan has been occupied and Arabian troops along the Hedjaz railway recently have taken more than 500 prisoners.

May Day apparently passed quietly in the central empires. Few news dispatches of Wednesday's date however have been received from Germany and Austria-Hungary.

SPAIN'S FIRST BASEBALL GAME

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 2.—The first baseball game ever played in Spain took place on April 30, between a Spanish and an American team, and resulted in the defeat of the Americans by a score of 22 to 12. The American team had for its captain, Paymaster William Ormesby, U. S. N., prominent American athlete, formerly of Brown University. Captain Gonzales led the Spaniards.

Three of the Spanish ballplayers were bull fighters. Spaniards are said to like the game, but consider it "very complicated."

TWO KILLED IN MAKING FLIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Fort Worth, Tex., May 2.—Falling 150 feet in a straight nose-dip this morning, Lieutenant James S. Ennis, jr., of New York City, and Cadet Paul Herriott of Oakland, Cal., were killed. The accident happened at Hicks, just an hour before General Greble and staff of Camp Bowie arrived to witness some "stunts" in flying.

ATTACK ON THENNES SECTOR A FAILURE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, May 2.—A German attack last night on the Thennes sector failed, the French war office announced this afternoon. French troops made raids on Lemouchel and west of Coucy le Chateau.

University, Macon, Ga., today told how her life, that of her two-year-old baby and two others was saved through the bravery of a negro fireman on the City of Athens.

Awakened from her sleep Mrs. Harrison barely had time to put a coat over her night dress and hurry to the deck with her baby. "I saw a lifeboat," she said, "but no one was paying any attention to it, except a United States marine, who lifted the baby into the boat. I was about to climb in with him and when the steamer topped and my grasp on the gunwale slipped. I caught up my baby as the ship sank under the swirling waters. When I came up choking and almost unconscious from the water with the little one in my arms, we were directly under the bow of a lifeboat."

"A man whom I afterward learned was James Wallace of Savannah, lifted the baby from my arms. When I regained consciousness I found myself in the lifeboat covered with a piece of canvas which I wrapped around the baby. My coat and nightdress were torn from the struggle to drag me in. After that Wallace rescued one marine and a civilian. That brave negro deserves a hero's medal."

"We were in the life boat for about two hours before we were picked up by the crew of the French cruiser. I cannot speak too highly of the gallantry and kindness of the French officers and men during our rescue and the time spent on the cruiser."

CASE AGAINST THE INTERNATIONAL FOR PIRATING OF NEWS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, May 2.—The case of the Associated Press against the International News Service or Hearst service to enjoin the latter from pirating Associated Press news dispatches, was up for argument today in the supreme court. Lower federal courts have granted injunctions stopping the Hearst service from taking Associated Press dispatches and distributing them as its own and the case comes up on appeal from those decisions.

Frederick W. Lehmann, of St. Louis, made the argument for the Associated Press; contending for the right of property in news. The principal argument for the Hearst service was made by Samuel Untermyer of New York and the closing argument for the Hearst service was made by Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, who had not previously appeared in the case.

The novel issue of property right in news dispatches has attracted the attention of attorneys and publishers all over the country and many were in court to hear the arguments.

NEED MORE TURKEYS, TOO.

With but little additional outlay to farmers, many more turkeys could be raised, poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture say. The small number of turkeys per farm in the United States is surprising. According to the census of 1910, which is the latest that has been taken, only 13.7 per cent of the total number of farms reported any turkeys at all, and on these farms an average of but slightly more than four breeding turkeys was found per farm. Some farms by the nature of the crops grown on them or because of unfavorable surroundings are not adapted to turkey-raising, but more farms are, and could easily handle a breeding flock of 10 to 15 hen turkeys and a tom, raising from 75 to 150 turkeys each year at a good profit. Farmers' Bulletin 791, "Turkey Raising," describes the most successful methods of breeding, feeding and management. It can be obtained free upon application to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

HELP SAVE THE GAME BIRDS.

The last day of the open season for hunting migratory game birds under the Federal regulations was January 31 and it is now unlawful to capture or kill migratory game birds anywhere in the United States. The Department of Agriculture makes this announcement in response to numerous requests for information concerning the Federal protective law. State game commissioners and sportsmen in nearly every state report that more wild fowl were killed during the open season just passed than in any season for many years. The increase in the number of birds attributed to the abolition of spring-shooting under the operation of the Federal regulations. The law already has been very beneficial to sportsmen and as a food protective measure, and under the continuance of existing protection there is every reason to hope for an ever-increasing supply of wild fowl which will greatly improve shooting conditions in the years to come.

The Department appeals to the patriotism and true sportsmanship of all persons to co-operate with it in the enforcement of the Federal law. It is gratifying to know, says a recent statement from the Department, that the majority of sportsmen have observed the regulations, and this fact has contributed largely to the successful results accomplished. The Department has planned to increase its force of wardens who will be active during the spring migration securing evidence upon which to base prosecutions against those who may violate the law.

There is only one thing more annoying than "It might have been," and that is, "I told you so."

Some people are mighty slow when they are awake, but they go fast asleep.
